

Complicado

“A couple of chords and no chorus”

Complicado is the solo project of Miguel Gomes, formerly of the band Mindelo. After supporting, as a guitarist, the live shows of Old Jerusalem and The Neon Road, Complicado presents its first album, "Haunted". Settled at the 2nd floor of an Oporto downtown flat, Miguel Gomes and Rodrigo Cardoso produced this record, wherein all the sounds of the compartments it was recorded in are registered. Without retreating into any elaborate melodies, the record rests at the crossing paths of the instruments played and the ambiances created.

“A praiseworthy capacity to conceive ample scenes and not rare hipnóticos times. It is music that zigzags between a shady atmosphere and a more luminous screen.”
Cristiano Pereira, JN, May 2005
